PROVISION OF SERVICES

Sovereign Insurance Services are a member of the Sovereign Group of companies and are authorised and regulated by the Gibraltar Financial Services Commission to act as a General Insurance Intermediary.

Insurance Services

As an Independent Insurance Intermediary, we offer a wide range of products from a carefully selected panel of leading insurers. We receive commission direct from the insurance company for the majority of policies placed with them. The only remuneration that we receive from clients is an administration fee which varies according to the individual circumstances of the insurance arranged for you.

Whilst we do not offer advice on the placement of insurance policies, we will assist you to make the right choice by working with you to assess your needs and then arranging quotations for that cover from reputable insurance specialists.

Language

The majority of our insurance partners issue documentation in English, whilst a few provide wordings in Spanish. All communications from us in respect of your insurance arrangements will be in English.

Our team speak English, Spanish and Portuguese.

Cancellation

You may cancel the insurance at any time by contacting us by email, 'phone or in person. Depending on the type of insurance, and the insurance company providing the cover, you may need to return to us the original policy documentation. Details of cancellation procedures are shown in your policy wording.

We reserve the right to apply a small administration charge where appropriate.

Disclosure of Information

You should continue to advise us of any changes to the information you have already provided during the policy term and at renewal, to ensure that your insurance needs are met, and that the basis of the policy remains correct at all times.

Preventing and Detecting Fraud and Claims History

If false or inaccurate information is supplied leading to a suspicion that fraud is intended, we are required by law to pass details to fraud protection agencies to prevent fraud and/or money laundering.

How to Claim

Should you unfortunately suffer a loss covered by your insurance contract, or you wish to check whether a possible claim is covered, please contact us by email on our dedicated claims site at claims@sovereigngroup.com, ' by phone or in person at our offices.
